

I Believe

By: Hazel Gay Lee song lyrics in poem format© 2014

I believe, oh yes, I believe
For his love has captivated me
In multitudes or all alone with thee
Oh God, yes God, I believe

Circumstances will come, and they'll go
Just like people of whom I love and know
And though I try to hold on
He reminds me he's the one
Who's in control and I just have to believe

And I believe, oh yes, I believe
For your love has captivated me
In multitudes or all alone with thee
Oh God, yes God, I believe

Changing seasons and times will all touch me
My future as uncertain as can be
But from Adam and Eve,
Right down to you and me
God's had control and he knows our every need

And I believe, oh yes, I believe
For your love has captivated me
In multitudes or all alone with thee
Oh God, yes God, I believe
