

America's Freedom

By: Hazel Gay Lee, song lyrics in poem format ©2013

America! America! So proud we're the USA
And to the ones for all they have done to make us feel this way
Within our soil lie the ones who fought for our freedom
I kiss the graves where they are laid for they are America
For those now gone and those still here who stood so proud and brave
I honor you for being true and all the love you gave
To the families who patiently has waited with such hope
And to their cries for those who died and their struggles just to cope

Stand still the earth
Stand still the moon
Stand still the stars and sun
A silent prayer for all who've shared
To make us number one

America! America! So proud we're the USA
And to each one for all you've done to make me feel this way
To the POW's and MIA's, wherever you may be
I salute you and pray for you for your safe return
To the young and old, the scared and brave, and those who gave their all
I bow my head in great respect for heeding our nation's call
The Commander and Chief and the boot camp soldier
And all the ranks between
You fought the fight. You paid the price for freedom and what that means

Stand still the earth
Stand still the moon
Stand still the stars and sun
A silent prayer for all who've shared
To make us number one

America! America! So proud we're the USA
And to each one for all you did to make me feel this way.

"God Bless our past, present, and future military heroes and all of their families. You are loved and appreciated. Thank you for all you have done for our country and the people, including me, you did it for. My love to you, Hazel Gay"
