

Caterpillar in a Butterfly Suit

By: Hazel Gay Lee © 2013

Male Vocals

I fell in love with a caterpillar in a butterfly suit
She was so good looking how could I refuse?
Then I found out way too late she was just a big oh fake
She was just a caterpillar in a butterfly suit
And when the lights go out at night
Her little wings just take a flight
Ms. Caterpillar herself turns into a little elf
With her body she crawls all over me
And we play the night away
To the dawning of a brand new day
Butterfly wings and all, little legs that like to crawl
Nothing quite like a caterpillar in foreplay
And do I mind? Of course, I mind
I mind so well that it's getting mighty fine
She can flutter around all day just so night is left for play
I'm in love with a caterpillar in a butterfly suit.

Female Vocals

Male voice: I thought you were a butterfly!

Female voice: I'm a caterpillar in disguise. I thought you were a butterfly.

Male voice: Fooled you! I'm just a caterpillar who likes to crawl and play!

Female voice: Me too! Crawl on over!

Male Voice: Alright then.

Both vocals: And do we mind? Of course we mind
We mind so well that it's getting mighty fine
We'll flutter around all day
Just so night is left for play
We fell in love with a caterpillar in a butterfly suit.
